

Greg grew up in the Spokane area and after graduating from Northwest Nazarene University in Southern Idaho in 1984 moved to Ft. Worth, Texas, where he worked in outside sales for a nationally known medical safety company until he entered the real estate business in 1997 and began his own apartment locator company in 1999.

Greg and his wife have recently relocated back to Spokane and joined Cantu Commercial Properties in the fall of 2001. Greg has settled back into the Spokane market and has already begun establishing himself selling and leasing office space. Greg is eager to help you and your company with your real estate needs whether it is to relocate, expand or downsize, Greg will be relentless in his pursuit to fulfill your requirements.
